

Thursday, Jan. 2, 1908.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. Bert Stedem was a Nelsonville visitor Sunday.

For 10 days only 1/2 to 3/4 off on Pictures at Bort & Co's.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kamit, of Carroll, spent Sunday in Logan.

Mr. Coon Reichley and son, of Bloomingville, are in Logan today.

Mr. Frank Oldiges, of Nelsonville, spent New Year's in Logan.

Mrs. Will Steinbauer, of Columbus, spent New Year's in Logan.

A clean up on Pictures, 25 to 50 per cent discount at Bort & Co's.

Mr. J. H. Winefordner, of New Straitsville, was in Logan, Tuesday.

Miss Martin, of McArthur, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gladman.

Miss Otis, of Hicksville, is the charming house guest of Mrs. Will Eisele.

Miss Lottie Harden spent Sunday with home folks, at New Plymouth.

Mrs. George Burberry, Sr., and Merl and Odabell spent Sunday in Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weis, and daughter, Florence, spent Sunday in Columbus.

Biggest reduction ever made on Pictures, 1/2 to 3/4 off for ten days only. Bort & Co.

Mr. John Till, of Junction City, spent New Year's Day with relatives in Logan.

Mrs. Sarah Long, of Mansfield, is spending the holidays with her son, Mr. H. A. Long.

Miss Bertha Wallace, of Lancaster is the guest of relatives and friends in Logan this week.

Only a few left. We want to sell out clean for Spring Stock of Pictures, 1/2 to 3/4 off. Bort & Co.

Mr. Ed. Doebele, of Dayton, is spending the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Doebele.

Ed. Shorr, of Columbus, spent New Year's in Logan, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Till and family.

Mr. Isaac Quillen, of Gibsonville, and son-in-law, Ed. Neff, of near Turlington, are visitors in Logan today.

Mr. James Farrell, of Sugar Creek, Athens county, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Beck and family, several days last week.

Misses Edna and Audrey Thurness, of Columbus, spent New Year's in Logan, the guests of Mayor and Mrs. Thurness and family.

Now is the time to take care of your stock. It pays to use Bort's Stock Food. A feed saver, a blood cleanser, a fine tonic, best there is. Bort & Co.

Miss Ida Juergensmeier returned to her home at Dayton, today, after a pleasant visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Juergensmeier.

Miss Grace Thurness returned to school at Wooster this morning, after a pleasant visit with her parents, Mayor and Mrs. D. V. Thurness.

Mrs. Bess Krizer, of Nelsonville, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Braddock. Mrs. Krizer recently lost her little two-year-old child.

Mrs. Cooney and son, and Mrs. Wallace and son, of Lancaster, spent Sunday in Logan, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Till and family.

Messrs. N. E. and Jake Bowers, returned home today from a three week's visit among relatives in Missouri. They report Missouri in good shape, crops fair, good health and good appetites with plenty to eat. N. E. made this office a pleasant call on his way home.

Gigantic Slaughter of Merchandise

in Every Department for Cash

STARTS, SATURDAY, JANUARY 4th, 1908.

If you know the meaning of our great January clean up you'll be doubly interested in this great bargain event. We desire to impress upon you that the values offered you during this sale surpass any of our previous efforts, as owing to the mild season and market stringency, our stocks are too heavy. Severe cuts have been made in every department in order to receive more speedy returns. Dont loose sight of this great buying opportunity, but if you have the remotest idea of shopping, be here early. We are in earnest, every article is at quick clearance prices and best bargains will move out in a hurry.

WELLMAN, STEINMAN & YONTZ

SOCIETY AND CLUB NEWS

Junia Club

Monday night Miss Jessie McManigal was hostess for the Junia Club and a very interesting meeting was held. The "grab bag" was a very attractive feature of the evening. "Magazines" was the subject discussed and some were praised and some criticised.

Musical

Miss Jeannette Chesnut, of Jackson, Ohio, who will soon begin work with a vocal class in Logan, will be heard at the Presbyterian church next Wednesday evening, January 8, 1908. Miss Chesnut comes to us with the very highest recommendations, having sung in all the larger cities. Logan lovers of high class music have a rare treat in store for them and we bespeak for Miss Chesnut a cordial reception.

Domestic.

The Domestic Club met with Mrs. Mary Strawn, Wednesday, and had a good old fashioned "grab bag," in which everyone got a nice present. Mrs. Will Brandt gave a very entertaining magazine reading. The responses to roll call were "What I got for Xmas," and old Santa certainly was rich this year and dispensed gifts with a lavish hand. Mrs. Strawn served quite an elaborate chicken dinner, in her usual happy manner.

Luncheon

Mrs. B. C. McManigal gave a very handsomely appointed luncheon at one-thirty, Tuesday, honoring Mrs. Thos. Rochester. Covers were laid for six. The decorations were of the beautiful poinsettia. The ladies who were seated at the luncheon table were Mrs. Phil Rochester, Mrs. H. R. Harrington, Mrs. Con Weitzel, Mrs. M. A. Campbell, Mrs. Thos. Rochester and the hostess, Mrs. McManigal was assisted in serving by her daughter, Miss Jessie.

Grab Bag

The Ladies Sewing Circle enjoyed a grab bag Saturday night at the elegant home of Mrs. Dr. Smith, of Glenview Heights. Quite a number of beautiful and useful articles were "grabbed." After a good old fashioned oyster supper some exciting games of cards were played and the prize captured by Miss Mame Campbell, which was a hair barrette.

Mrs. Wiley Thurness, of Columbus, Mrs. Charles Sloane and Miss Lulu Hooper, of Jackson, were visitors.

New Year Dinner

Editor and Mrs. A. E. Huls entertained the "whole family" with a big turkey dinner at their splendid home on Hunter street on New Year's day. The immediate family of Huls and the family of Troxels, of Rockbridge, all came, except of course Mr. and Mrs. Will Huls, who are in California, and one sister. Nineteen responded to the roll call, and Bro. Huls says he never had so much fun in his life. The children were turned loose, and the house was turned into a veritable gridiron, and the game of rugby is not in it with the romp of the day.

Pedro Party

Miss Lucille Allen very handsomely entertained the Young Ladies Sewing Circle last Friday afternoon with a Pedro party. The members were all present and spent a very enjoyable time. Miss Bird White carried off the club honors, a china plate. The out-of-town guests were Mrs. Dr. Furniss, of Canal Dover, Mrs. Charles Sloane, of Jackson, Mrs. Wiley Thurness, of Columbus, Miss Lulu Hooper, of Jackson, Miss Bird White, Miss Mazie White and Miss Carrie Lutz. Miss Allen served a two course lunch.

Forty-Second Mile-Stone

A dozen friends of Mr. E. O. Pettit gathered at his handsome home on Main street, Friday evening, to tell him of a very important event in history, namely, that 42 years prior to the 26th day of December, 1907, he was ushered into this world, and to the delight of his friends and family, he has been here ever since.

His good wife, on Friday evening, had prepared a most sumptuous supper for the guests, and incidentally Mr. Pettit was permitted to head the table, and eat much more than he did 42 years ago.

He was the recipient of several handsome remembrances of the day, and showered with good wishes for a long life of happiness.

Social Circle

The ladies of the Social Circle met with Mrs. Rudolph Brown at her lovely home on Market street, last Friday afternoon and enjoyed their usual holiday "grab bag." Some very beautiful presents were exchanged. Mrs. Brown presented a Berry contest, which was quite entertaining and "berry" nice. Mrs. Dr. Ellison gathered the most berries and was presented with a very pretty piece of battery. Mrs. Cyrus Rochester received the visitors prize, a fancy apron, and Mrs. Ed. Beck was consoled with a china toothpick holder. Mrs. Brown served light refreshments, assisted by Miss Racine and Master Paul. Mrs. Cyrus Rochester and Miss Lola Wilcox, of Columbus, were guests.

40th Anniversary

Mrs. John Easterling entertained with a three-course turkey dinner, last Saturday, in honor of Mr. Easterling's 40th birthday anniversary. The guests were confined to their old crowd of former happy occasions. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lappen, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Slatzer, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Keynes, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Steinman, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Brandt, Mrs. M. C. Littlejohn, Mr. and Mrs. George Krinn and the Misses Lucy and Emma Westenhaver. Dr. and Mrs. Mansfield, of Columbus, and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Deishlie, of North Walnut street, were unable to attend on account of sickness. Miss Estella Littlejohn and the Misses Ruth and Nancy Easterling assisted in the service. A very enjoyable time was had.

Entertained

On last Thursday evening, Dec. 26th, Miss Zola Kellar entertained quite a number of her friends at her country home, two miles south east of Logan, in honor of her cousin, Miss Vesta Camp, of Salem O. The evening was spent very pleasantly in playing games and music. Refreshments were served at a late hour, after which all departed wishing many more such returns. Those present were: Misses Fannie and Ruth Stone, Minnie, Bertha and Ida Lutz, Carrie Skinner, Mae Burns, Tena Campbell, Josephine Shaw, Edna Goss, Irma Weaver, Margaret Beery, Tena Kellar, Almeda Like, Vesta Camp and Zola Kellar and Messrs. Carl Lutz, Frank, Charley and Barney Keplar, John Rheinscheid, Lewis Skinner, Will Stone, Charley Harden, Paul Will, John and Ebert McBroom, Clinton Woods, Myron Hansel, Frank Campbell and Charley Burns. "One who was there."

Tourist Club

The ladies of the Tourist Club certainly did themselves proud last Thursday evening by banqueting their husbands at the Hotel Ambrose. Promptly at 8 o'clock the call to supper was given and the club and their guests seated at two handsomely appointed tables, each table seating ten couples. The dining room decorations were indeed beautiful and showed the taste and skill of an artist. Tiny Xmas trees, candles and potted plants with the ever beautiful red and green of the holly, formed a very effective setting for the beautiful gowns of the ladies. A five course turkey banquet was served in the following courses: 1st course, New York Counts, Consomme—cream of celery; 2nd course, fish radishes, olives; 3rd course, cucumber salad, tomatoes, lettuce; 4th course, turkey, dressing, pea patties, mashed potatoes, Brussels sprouts; 5th course, cream, cake and coffee. The visitors were Dr. and Mrs. Furniss, of Canal Dover, Mrs. Charles Smith, of Columbus, and Miss Evelyn Bowen; the latter pleasing all with her sweet music.

Leap-Year Ball

One of the most delightful social events of the winter was the Leap Year Ball given by a number of Logan ladies in honor of the pleasing gentlemen friends whom have so nicely entertained them so often. Fifty two couples were present.

Death of Miss Eggleston.

The shocking news came to Logan, Sunday morning that the amiable, genial, jolly little telegraph operator, Miss Mahala Eggleston, had died suddenly, in Columbus. The sad news was phoned to Mrs. Homer Bay, her aunt, and to her sister, Mrs. Lawrence Lindsey, on Glenview Heights.

Later the news was verified, and that the cause of death was resultant from a fall on the ice a few weeks before, the immediate cause being hemorrhage. Mrs. Lindsey and Mrs. Bay went to Columbus, Sunday evening.

The body was shipped to New Plymouth, where the funeral occurred on Tuesday.

Miss Eggleston for a year studied telegraphy in the Logan Western Union Office with Miss Vail, and she was loved by all who knew her, who are sad indeed because of her death. She was but 20 years old.

[Columbus Dispatch.]

The sudden death of Miss Mahala Eggleston, aged 20 years, daughter of Lafayette Eggleston, Republican leader of Vinton county, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burt Williams, 181 South Sixth street, Sunday morning, was followed by an autopsy at the Fisher undertaking establishment on East Broad street, Monday morning, by Dr. Erwin W. Schueller, in order to determine the exact cause.

It was found that she died of an internal hemorrhage due to a fall she sustained some time ago, which was purely accidental.

Miss Eggleston was sitting up in bed and laughing when Mr. Williams brought up her breakfast to her shortly before 10 o'clock. She was in a jovial mood and seemed better except for a pain in her side. After she had taken the food she suddenly became very ill. When Mrs. Williams, who was called by her husband, arrived at her room, the girl's face was purple and one arm was icy cold with purple spots on it. "I think I'm dying," she breathed. "But, I'm not afraid to die. Only, I wish Mama was here. Don't you think that she will come soon?" Two physicians were summoned but before they arrived she died.

Miss Eggleston had been ill for about 8 weeks. She came to Columbus about six months ago from New Plymouth and took a position as telegraph operator at the Western Union. Although she had been ill she kept at her work and took to her bed only several days ago. Her case was diagnosed by the attending physician, Dr. Schueller, as peritonitis. She suffered with pains in her left side and back.

Mr. Eggleston, the girl's father, Mrs. Charles O'Neil and Mrs. Homer Bay, of Logan, her aunts, arrived in Columbus, Sunday night. Mrs. Eggleston is very ill and was unable to come to Columbus. Miss Eggleston was the niece of Benjamin Eggleston, of Cincinnati, former congressman from Ohio. She had many friends and was beloved by those who knew her.

John Bowers is Dead.

We were indeed sorry to hear the sad news, Friday morning, of the sudden death of John Bowers, at his home in South Logan. He had been working down the valley and came home Tuesday, not feeling well, and took to his bed with what threatened to be pneumonia. His kidneys became affected and he sank rapidly, passing away Friday morning. He was one of Logan's good men, a painter and carpenter by trade, and it is said that painting had much to do with his early demise. He was an Odd-fellow, and was buried by that order from the Methodist church Sunday afternoon.

Mr. John M. Bowers was born near Ewing, Hooking County, Ohio, May 27, 1860. He was married to Miss Anna Nupp, August 14, 1881. One son and three daughters, still living, and one little daughter, who has passed to the good world. These have constituted the household. For ten years after his marriage he lived in the home neighborhood. For more than fifteen years the home has been in Logan.

Mr. Bowers has been known all his life as an industrious man, willing to do hard work, even beyond his strength. His one aim has been to provide a comfortable home for himself and family. This he certainly accomplished. The family has been permitted to enjoy one of the best homes in their part of Logan.

Soon after he came to Logan he became a member of this church under the pastorate of J. E. Rudinill. He departed this life Friday morning, December 27, 1907, at the age of 47 years and 7 months. Logan has lost a faithful husband, a loving father, a trusted mechanic, a genial gentleman and a good citizen.

Death of Mrs. Deishlie.

On Thursday of last week, December 26th, occurred the death of Mrs. George Deishlie, at her home on the Zanesville Road, in north Logan. Her illness was very brief, and her death comes as a great shock to her host of friends.

Mr. Deishlie was formerly Miss Louise A. Murphy, and was born in Guernsey county, Ohio, December 12, 1852, being 55 years old at the time of her death. On the 25th day of March, 1874, she became the wife of George Deishlie, at New Plymouth, Ohio. To this union four children were born, of whom Frederick and Charles, yet at home, and Miss Margaret, of Chicago, still survive her to comfort the bereaved father.

Some years ago, under the ministry of C. C. Hart, Mrs. Deishlie became a member of the Logan Presbyterian church, which membership she has held until her death.

Mrs. Deishlie's mother is still living; she is Mrs. Jane Martin, of McArthur; there also reside three sisters, Nettie and Margaret Martin, and Mrs. Sarah Sockel.

In the death of Mrs. Deishlie, Logan loses one of our best women. A faithful, devoted wife, a tender and loving mother, a good neighbor and earnest Christian.

The funeral occurred from the Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon, Rev. Wilson officiating.

Fred Miller Meets With an Accident.

Mr. Fred Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Myrod Miller, met with a very painful accident on Tuesday, at the railroad bridge near the depot. He was employed at the bridge in building and repairing the coffer-dam, when a heavy timber fell from above him, striking him on the head and knocking him down. It seems that the fall, or the timber falling on him when down, broke his leg. The concussion above the eye is a very painful wound, which, together with the fracture of the limb, has laid him up at home. He is reported to be getting along as well as possible under the circumstances.

Grim Reaper

As we go to press today we learn of the death of Mrs. Ed. Donovan, the aged mother of Mr. Ed. Donovan and Mrs. Penny Kessler. She died at 7 o'clock this morning of acute pneumonia.

Mr. J. J. Rodehaver, who has been afflicted for some months, died at his home in east Logan, this morning at 5 o'clock. As we go to press we have not learned of the funeral arrangements.

Mr. Zara Cook, died Tuesday after a brief illness, of fever. The funeral will occur today from the home on Market street. He was 55 years old, born and raised in Logan, and for a number of years has been hostler at Oliver's livery barn. We will publish a memorial of his life in next week's paper.

Mayor Thurness.

On Wednesday morning, Mayor D. V. Thurness was inducted into office; former Mayor Dollison turned over the books and keys to him and wished him good luck.

Mayor Dollison has collected and turned into the Village treasurer $1402.40 in the two years, as against $540.24, the greatest amount collected by any former mayor in the same length of time. Mr. Dollison retires with kindly feeling toward all, and thanks his friends for the courtesies extended, and wishes every person, friend or foe, a happy and prosperous year.